

Zonta International

Young Women in Public Affairs Award

Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy. As a global organization, Zonta International has nearly 30,000 members participating in 1,200 Zonta clubs across 66 countries.

As part of the Zonta International vision and contribution to providing a global impact, the organization established the Young Women in Public Affairs Award in 1990.

The Award recognizes young women, ages 16-19, who demonstrate superior leadership skills and a commitment to public service and civic causes, and encourages them to continue their participation in public and political life. Ten (10) international scholarships of US$4,000 each and up to 32 district/region scholarships of US$1,000 each are awarded each year.

The Zonta International Vision

Zonta International envisions a world in which women's rights are recognized as human rights and every woman is able to achieve her full potential.

In such a world, women have access to all resources and are represented in decision making positions on an equal basis with men.

In such a world, no woman lives in fear of violence.
